Dear Shravya,

Do you still love me? Is it too late? I been trying to bring all the things back. You are the beat in my heart beat and the heart hurts. I don't wanna let you go.

I feared one thing, after you go to college will you start avoiding me. Will you not make time for me. And when you go out will you even think of me, will you even see the messages I sent. So Many questions, all unanswered. Its the thought of our future that's killing me. Will you ever love me the same? Will I be your priority again? Are you taking me for granted now? What is this that you are doing, please just stop. Stop the nonsense tell me you need me.

You know, I always dreamt of running away from everything and all I can think of the places I can go is being next to you. I need you more each passing day. I miss you more everyday.

Yours sincerely,

Pushkar K U
