

Why did i love you!?

maybe because of how you made me feel or the connection we had or the deep conversations, i don't know ~~ooo~~ hey, lately i have fallen in love so much that i'm still trying to figure out what's happening. you were the one who taught me what love was. Now, you are the one showing me what love is. i can feel it, my heart beats faster, it skips a beat sometimes ~~and~~ the kisses feel magical and hugs feel comfortable ~~and~~ that i feel like just being there. it's all so beautiful, at the same time i'm also scared i'll lose all these. I really don't want to lose you even for a day, even for an hour, even for a second. . i always wanna be with you. i understand that there will be fights and other things i hope we fix them and repair and not replace us.

I love you,

your baby, your boo, your partner, your husband,

P.S. Sorry for bad handwriting, i crushed
the paper i thought it would look good. i love you
